Considers Protest Against High Licenses Charged Jewelry Concerns.

Members of the laws and legislation committee of the Commercial club met yesterday and discussed a number of matters referred to it. Several sub-committees were appointed by Chairman Glen Miller.

A complaint of a local jewelry firm against the licensing of retail businesses was read and referred to the subcommittee on revenue and taxation, which consists of Frank B. Stephens, Carl A. Badger and J. B. Evans. The jewelry firm claims that the license is excessive and is causing firms to suspend business here and remove from the state.

At the suggestion of George H. Trump, who wrote to the committee on the matter, an investigation of the respective merits of serial and sinking fund bonds of state, county and city issues was requested of the subcommittee on revenue and taxation. The subcommittee

Committee will report in a later session. The committee has been studying the road improvement bonds for the counties and the State, especially, and it was for the belief of some members of the committee that the laws of Utah in this regard should be changed so as to authorize the State to issue bonds for the improvement of roads and permitting local divisions and communities to issue bonds payable in cash or in installments.

A special committee consisting of Carl A. Badger, Norman Henner, George W. Smith and others was appointed to take up the board of commissioners' suggestions regarding bonuses to railroads building into new territories. A report on the plan will be made at the next meeting of the committee.

The committee was also informed that the New Orleans Association of Commerce calling attention to the fact that Utah was under way a movement for the enactment of legislation which would providing $500,000,000 for the sale of water in the United States. The communication was referred to a special committee consisting of Moros Heiner, A. H. Cook and Daniel Alexander.

A number of letters from F. S. Murphy and James Ingebrethsen, referring to a new traffic ordinance which is now pending before the city commission, were referred to a committee consisting of James Ingebrethsen, Julian M. Bamberg and Frank B. Stephens. The subcommittee will report at the next meeting.

On the motion of A. H. Cook it was unanimously voted by the committee that it is opposed to the public exhibition of obscene subjects, either by means or commerce, and that such exhibition ought to be prohibited by law. Chairman Miller appointed Mr. Cook to take the matter up with the city commission on the committee to be organized by Chairman Miller to appoint a special committee to receive in the interim between meetings communications addressed to the laws and legislation committee which call for immediate action on the committee to use its judgment in acting for the committee on the whole on such matters.

BAMBERGER ROAD TO CONNECT WITH OREM

Bids for Construction, Including the Necessary Material, Called For.

Bids for the construction of track to connect the present lumberyard station on Third West street with the South Temple and North Temple streets. The new joint interurban terminus of the Salt Lake & Ogden and the Salt Lake & Utah railroads on First West street, between Second and Third South streets, were called for yesterday by the Salt Lake & Ogden company. The materials included in the contract to be awarded to the successful bidder include ties, rails, pole wire and other construction material.

The tracks will be built from the present tracks on Third West street east midway between North Temple and South Temple streets, and will be running eastward through the center of the First West-Second West street block to West Temple street; south of West Temple street to in front of the terminal station, half way between Second South and Third South streets on West Temple, and from that point turn east and run into the block to the front face of the terminal station.

The first regular train of the Oregon Road will operate between Salt Lake and American Fork Monday. The train will leave the temporary station, at the corner of First West and Third South streets, at 7:45 a. m. For the present other trains will leave at 10:30 a. m., 1:30 p. m. and 5:30 p. m. The first train will leave American Fork for Salt Lake at 9:10 a. m. Other trains will leave at 11:50 a. m., 2:55 p. m. and 6:55 p. m.

PRISON SENTENCE IS IMPOSED BY JUDGE

SAN FRANCISCO, March 19.—THREE officials of the Western Fuel company who were recently convicted of conspiracy to defraud the federal government were given jail sentences tonight by Judge Maurice T. Dooling of the United States district court in this city. James E. Smith, vice president and general manager of the company, was sentenced to one-half year in San Quentin and to pay

Judge Dooling sentenced the trio immediately upon his denial of a motion to reduce the term. The sentence was originally one and one-half years in the county jail, but Judge Dooling reconsidered and mitigated it to one year, in order that the convicted man might be seen by his family and friends. Instead of the penitentiary, a stay of execution for thirty days was granted to perfect, a fine of $5000; Fred C. Mills, superintendent, was also sentenced to one and one-half years in the county; Edward J. Miller, wright, was given a year in the Alameda county jail.

Assignments to Conventions.

The following persons have been appointed by the Deseret Sunday School Union board to attend the Sunday school conventions in the stakes named next Sunday: Deseret, Dr. James E. Judge Thurman declined to give details of any proposed tion or fusion. He suggested that we not believe there would be any over the spoils, and that all of us to the combination would desire that the candidates named were strong, progressive and able to be qualified for the positions for which they were nominated.

Unwritten Agreement. Under the terms of an agreement to which leaders of both parties have agreed, there are the following features:

(a) The Democrats shall name a candidate for United States Senator, whom the Progressives endorse, provided that

(b) The Progressives shall nominate the candidate for justice of the supreme court, whom the Union shall endorse.

(c) The nomination for state superintendent of public instruction shall be made without reference to the

(c) The question of union in the various counties will be the local organizations, with

(f) The parties will maintain rate organizations and coordinate campaigns, even though tickets be identical.

This plan in its entirety is the approval of the leaders of and no serious objection to it made, so far as can be learned from members of either party.

Progressives are in power, and there will probably be a contest between Republicans and Democrats for the Progressives. This condition is due from the efforts of the county commissioners to impeach the publican county attorney and the democratic sheriff. In Utah and other states, where all of the county Democrats there may be some to the proposal to have some Democratic officers step out to make room for Progressives seeking the offices. However, it is noted that these conditions are a local nature and may easily be justified.

JOHN E. CLARK IS OFF FOR CA

At the request of the Immigration
Department of the United States, John left yesterday for Washington with Secretary McAdoo relative to qualifications for the position of bank examiner for Wyoming for which he has been recommended by the state Democratic organization in Utah.

Mr. Clark is an expert accountant and has had no banking experience. He understood that the department needed an examiner who has had practical banking experience, but does not consider his experience absolutely essential.
